

HB 432, bill with the same caption as HB 58, was introduced after the Governor's veto was received for HB 58. House Discussion and Passage of HB 432 is displayed below. Discussion of final house passage describes the bill in different language from caption. Date information in bill register was used to identify this discussion as final passage of bill in the House. [Note: pages are taken from typescript copy of the journal; pagination will be different in printed journal.]

February 23, 1874

344

Reports from Judiciary Committee No. 2:

Hon. Guy M. Bryan, Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your Judiciary Committee No. 2, to whom was referred House bill No. 58, entitled "An act validating the authentication and registration of certain instruments of writing," and the message of the Governor returning the same, have had the same under consideration, and instruct me to return it, and to recommend that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee No. 1.

B. H. Epperson, Chairman.

The report was adopted and reference made.

Monday, April 13, 1874.¹

On motion of Mr. Smith of Grimes, the House took up Senate substitute for House bill, an act to provide for supplying lost records in the several counties of this State, which passed under suspension of the rules.